

The LORD Is Beautiful

PORNOGRAPHY IS A PRISON
God-given desires locked behind perversion, closed doors, guilt, and condemnation. Many who seek pleasure in it become bound, lost in an endless search for beauty and pleasure. Pornography leads to isolation, ruined relationships, and women who suffer either in their marriages or in the horrors of human trafficking. But there is GOOD NEWS. There is FORGIVENESS and FREEDOM. Jesus can do what years of struggle, willpower, and self-effort cant: deliver you and set you free free to enjoy all that He is. God made men with an insatiable desire for beauty, and nothing holds men captive or inspires them more than the beauty of a woman. Yet no woman, no life spent searching on the internet or in the bed can fully satisfy your deepest desire the desire for beauty, pleasure, and intimacy. But God made you for just that to find in Him everything you saw and sought in her. To know the God who made sex the joyous and ecstatic expression of intimacy between a husband and wife to foreshadow the ecstasy you will know when fully united with Him. To be united with the One who made every woman you ever desired in His image. To share your life with the Source of beauty you see so wonderfully formed in her. To trust that He WILL fulfill your hearts desires.

Who are the only two people in the Bible who wrote about the BEAUTY of the Lord? What INSPIRED them to write about this topic? Let us remember the Lord is still reigns in ultimate authority.
