

Excerpt from Short Sermons on Catholic Doctrine, Vol. 1: A Plain and Practical Exposition of the Faith in a Series of Brief Discourses for the Ecclesiastical Year St. Augustine says: Everybody, whoever he may be or what ever he may wish, carries in his heart a natural longing for happiness and bliss; everybody wants to be happy. My dear friends, if you earnestly wish to satisfy this longing for bliss and happiness, you must address this longing to some one who can satisfy it. Do you wish to know His name? It is the name which we hear and speak of with the greatest reverence; it is the most holy name of Jesus. Yes, Jesus it is who can teach us to find happiness, who shows us the way to it and gives us the means for obtaining it. He is, indeed, what His name signifies, Bliss-giver. I am the way, the truth and the life, He says of Himself. Very well, then! let us listen to His teaching, let us be led by His hand, let us rely upon His aid, then bliss and happiness will surely be our portion. The subject we will dwell on to-day is faith. To obtain salvation it is necessary before all else to possess faith. Therefore we must believe. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
