

In the Service of Peace: Memories of Lebanon

In October 2001, Ireland begins its withdrawal from the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon (UNIFIL), having finally succeeded in implementing UN Security Council Resolution 425 of 1978 and confirming Israeli withdrawal beyond the international border, or what in UN parlance is now referred to simply as the Blue Line. Since 1978, An Cosantóir, the Defence Forces magazine, has chronicled the lives and duties of Irish soldiers through twenty-three years of difficult UN peacekeeping operations in the rocky, barren hills of south Lebanon. This is the story of what Irish soldiers said and did in the Lebanon for twenty-three years. It does not pretend to be a definitive history of their involvement but of necessity every memory recounted is steeped in the history of the region and the savage multi-dimensional war which raged there for a quarter of a century.

defining Lebanon's collective memory and will likely define inter-communal relations and the implementation of projects of the Civil Peace Service, forumZFD Contact. Forum Civil Peace Service Moukarzel Bldg. (Ground floor) Museum Square (Mathaf) Beirut / Lebanon E-Mail: lebanon@.INT THE SERVICE OF PEACE. MEMORIES OF LEBANON. FROM THE PAGES OF AN COSANTÓIR. A 395529. Edited. by. COMDT BRENDAN OSHEA. A Fragmented Unity: Lebanon's War and Peace in Cultural Memory .. Choosing distinct events means the suppression of others in the service of the narrative In The Service Of Peace Memories Of Lebanon Comdt Brendan O'Shea, Used Non-fiction Books For Sale in Drumcondra, Dublin, Ireland for 8.00 euros on In the Service of Peace: Memories of Lebanon [Brendan O'Shea] on . *FREE* shipping on qualifying offers. In October 2001, Ireland begins its The service of Irish personnel in UN peacekeeping missions is .. Published in In the Service of Peace: Memories of Lebanon (From the Pages From At Tiri to Qana: the impact of peacekeeping in Lebanon on Israeli Irish Brendan O'Shea ed., In the Service of Peace: Memories of Lebanon (Cork: In the Service of Peace. Memories of Lebanon. by Comdt Brendan O'Shea, Editor. Cowan. The 1982 Lebanon War, dubbed Operation Peace for Galilee by the Israeli government, later .. The attack was ordered by the Iraqi Intelligence Service. In his memoirs, Sharon stated that the attack was merely the spark that lit the fuse. We must all strive to work for peace in memory of all our colleagues who did bravery and service to the United Nations, Lebanon and Ghana, Format: Book Language: English Published/?Created: Dublin : Mercier Press, 2001. Description: 224 p. : ill., maps 22 cm. Notes: Published in association