

Get Back in the Game: Living Where the Rubber Meets the Road

When trials arrive, its a myth youll rise to the occasion, rather youll sink to your level of preparation. Its time to get back in the game, because preparedness only comes from training and effort. The failure to prepare isnt a new trend, as Israel faced a similar problem. After one of their captivities, a few decided to return to the Holy Land to build the temple. Naturally, enemies began to attack, and the builders withered, gave up, and quit. Its the same problem Christians face today, so well require the same solution Israel did, as Zechariah and Haggai appear about the same time to encourage the people to rejoin the battle, providing practical advice you can still use today. Its time to do something, transforming from a 98-pound spiritual weakling to a seasoned and combat-ready Christian, because Christianity is (and always will be) a full-contact experience.
