

The Rapturing of the Saints

The manifestations of end-time prophecies are now occurring at an alarming rate so unparalleled and unprecedented is the rate of these prophetic manifestations that no other time or generation can make this claim. So it is, therefore, relevant for everyone and especially for all believers to take notice to this particular time for what these prophetic declarations by major prophets such as Daniel, the Apostle John, Zachariah, and others, really mean. Moreover, the global impact that these prophetic manifestations are having on today's society whether socially, politically, economically, or environmentally is essentially unfolding with lightning speed and with an even greater revelation of God's Kingdom. One particular event that is tied to these end-time prophetic manifestations is the event or the occurrence of the rapture, which is referenced in the Holy Bible as the catching away of the saints. But the rapture is an event that the Holy Word of God has expressly defined as an inevitable occurrence, which occurs directly after events not limited to those celestial activities such as the moon turning to blood, the darkening of the sun, or the shaking of the heavens and even an economic catastrophe of colossal proportions, so it is even more urgent for everyone to take much notice of these prophetic manifestations. So this book The Rupturing of the Saints gives a comprehensive and powerful outlook of the end-time prophecies and manifestations that reveals almost everything as it concerns the rapture with astonishingly profound certainty by meticulously giving a scripture by scripture analysis of what the rapture is about and the set time of its occurrence, a pre, mid, and post-tribulation rapture analysis, and the final kingdom when Jesus Christ reigns. Where other books have failed, this book liberally pursues all avenues of understanding the rapture and in so doing challenges, justifies, and edifies all conclusive precedents upon which it ultimately makes its repositions. Owen Johnson is also the author of two other books, The Voice of Spiritual Chronicles and The Praying of the Effectual Fervent Prayer.
