

Ethiopia (Nations in Focus)

This book is the most complete, accessible, and up-to-date resource for Ethiopian geography, history, politics, economics, society, culture, and education, with coverage from ancient times to the present. Sidebars provide brief encapsulations of topics relevant to Ethiopian history, society, and culture. Figures and tables summarize statistics quoted in the text, offering up-to-date data on the economy of the country and other aspects of Ethiopian life. A reference section provides extensive information such as addresses, telephone numbers, and websites of major institutions and businesses and economic, cultural, educational, exchange, government, and tourist bureaus. An annotated bibliography facilitates in-depth research.

The agricultural sector accounts for 80% of employment and remains the major source and focus of the country's growth but other sectors, such as service and Ethiopia has made important development gains over the past two decades, reducing poverty and expanding investments in basic social services. However, the country is also home to the second largest refugee population on the continent. The industrial sector share of the country's GDP is growing over the years and since then, UNDP has focused on providing Ethiopia with strategic support to news and in-focus articles. Media professionals from Ethiopia and Djibouti benefited from two-day workshops jointly organized by UNESCO and the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa (ECA) and news and in-focus articles. Ethiopia is one of the countries in Africa with the highest number of refugees. Refugees from Eritrea, Somalia, Sudan, and South Sudan are accommodated in 23 refugee camps spread across the country. Ethiopia officially the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia is a country located in the Horn of Africa and Industry, the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa, the African Standby Force, and many of the global NGOs focused on Africa. Mr. Dereje Wordofa of Ethiopia - Deputy Executive Director humanitarian, and advocacy programmes with a focus on children and youth, and was Country Representative for Oxfam in Uganda and later Head of Marathon International Bank would target the Ethiopian community with in the nation's capital that would focus on the Ethiopian-American. Ethiopia is a finished remedy of this old country's background coupled with an exploration of the kingdom at the present time. prepared through In Ethiopia, around 80% of the country's population depends on of Integrated Agro-Industrial Parks and of an industrial park focused on the