

Jesus Way of Wisdom (B&W): How 53 of Jesus Poems Decoded In the Gospel of Thomas Reveal His Unknown, Revolutionary Good News And How and Why the Apostle Paul Altered It

The Way of Wisdom Series takes an in-depth look at the gospels, using the recently discovered translation technique of Semitic Parallelism. Through this technique, the Gospel of Thomas shines as an example of the true teachings of Jesus Christ. Volume One serves as an introduction to this technique, taking a close look at the Gospel of Thomas Wisdom Poems as well as by contrasting Jesus true message with the message contained in the writings of Paul.

Volume One presents 52 of Jesus's wisdom poems showing: Jesus real, unknown core message his gospel, Jesus unknown personal development (mental health) step by step method, Jesus solution for inter-group, inter-nation conflicts, Jesus Way of Wisdom (a non-religion religion for everyone, including atheists), How these revelations may be part of his Second Coming From the Introduction...

Jesus Legacy Jesus came on the scene suddenly, like many other Messiah figures before and since. However, unlike all others, he birthed an unusual legacy. On one hand, many of his followers seek guidance as he did, directly from an outside source of inspiration, that many have called by names like the Holy Spirit, God and Inner Voice. On the other hand, his followers also subscribe to various doctrines that he did not create. These doctrines control their actions and thoughts; thus, we find that those affected by Jesus teachings are torn between independence and dependence, freedom and subservience, and enlightenment and mind control. Out of love for Jesus, many veer from loving and helping everyone, to hating, marginalizing and persecuting those who differ from them in doctrine. In short, most, if not all of his followers subscribe to both the Way of Wisdom and the Way of Religion...
