

Fine Black Lines: Reflections on Facing Cancer, Fear and Loneliness

Thousands have found laughter, tears, and realistic optimism as Hjelmstad pulls readers into the deep range of emotions that engulfed her as she battled breast cancer, two mastectomies and chronic fatigue syndrome. The introspective journal entries, poignant photographs, powerful poetry and thoughtful reflections tell a story you won't soon forget. This unusual format is succinct and easily read by those who are overwhelmed by emotion and treatment. Fine Black Lines was awarded 1st Place in Non-fiction by Colorado Independent Publishers Association in 1994 and received the Best Book Award 1996 from the Natural Death Centre in London.
