

Hey God! Whats Up?: An Inquisitive Bible-Reader Writes the Almighty

Brandt Markham grew up with the Bible, and always keeps a couple handy. Over the years, he has come across many curiosities--bizarre tales, wacky rules, and lots of stories that would keep any other book out of the reach of children. Recalling his childhood, he started to write letters to God, asking essentially, Whats the deal? here are some of the questions that inspired the letters: Why is sorrow better than laughter? (Ecclesiastes 7:3) Why were men told by God to kill your brother, your friend, and your neighbor in order to serve him? (Exodus 32:27) Why are there two distinct stories about what Judas did with the coins he got for ratting out Jesus, and about how he died? (Acts 1:18 and Matthew 27:3-5) Why did Jesus say that in order to be his disciple, a person must hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself.? (Luke 14:26) Why is money the answer for everything? (Ecclesiastes 10:19) Why cant blind people, dwarves, and men with crushed testicles be priests? (Leviticus 21:18-20) Why will God torture us if we dont forgive others? (Matthew 18:21-35) Why dont the gospels agree on who carried Jesus cross? Why did God kill everyone on the planet except for eight people? (Genesis chapters 6-9) With a keyboard and a chuckle, Mr. Markham asked these and many more questions of the Almighty.
