

The Mel Blanc Show

Laugh until your sides ache! This uproarious comedy stars Mel Blanc, the comedic genius that was also the voice of so many Warner Brothers cartoon characters. Mel plays two main characters, Mel Blanc, an addled young man who runs a fix-it shop and Zookie, Mels helper in the shop. The show features Mary Jane Croft, Joseph Kearns, Hans Conried and Alan Reed. 18 episodes: Birthday Card Mix-Up 09-03-46 The Efficiency Expert 09-10-46 Mel Bakes a Cake 09-17-46 The Fishing Rod 10-08-46 Ballroom Tickets 10-15-46 Mel Breaks the New Radio 11-05-46 Mel Imitates Actors 11-12-46 Mel Impersonates Mr. Colby 11-19-46 The Thanksgiving Show 11-26-46 Bettys Christmas Present 12-10-46 Exchanging Gifts 12-17-46 Mel Plays Santa Claus 12-24-46 The Record of Caruso 01-07-47 The Masquerade Costume 01-28-47 The Fix-It Shop Is Sold 02-11-47 The Comedy Team 02-25-47 The Stuffed Pheasant 03-04-47 Ugg-a-Ugg-a-Boo Beauty Contest 03-25-47

- 24 min - Uploaded by OTR Old Time RadioThe Mel Blanc Show. September 3, 1946. CBS. Sponsored by: Colgate Tooth Powder, Halo - 25 min - Uploaded by A Room With A ViewMel Blancs success on The Jack Benny Program led to his own radio show on the CBS Radio - 23 min - Uploaded by A Room With A ViewMel Blancs success on The Jack Benny Program led to his own radio show on the CBS Radio - 23 min - Uploaded by OTR Old Time RadioAlthough Mel Blanc did countless character impersonations on other radio programs, as well - 28 min - Uploaded by A Room With A ViewMel Blancs success on The Jack Benny Program led to his own radio show on the CBS Radio - 22 min - Uploaded by oldtimeradiooutlawMel Blanc Show Muscle Man Show from 100146 Check us out on Facebook at [Page 1](https://www + Mel Blanc (May 30, 1908 July 10, 1989) was an American voice actor and comedian. Although he began his nearly six-decade-long career performing in - 24 min - Uploaded by OTR Old Time RadioAlthough Mel Blanc did countless character impersonations on other radio programs, as well - 24 min - Uploaded by A Room With A ViewMel Blancs success on The Jack Benny Program led to his own radio show on the CBS Radio Mel Blanc is best known as the voice of the Looney Tunes characters, especially Bugs Bunny, but this Man of a Thousand Voices was a hit on radio, not just in Mel Blancs success on The Jack Benny Program led to his own radio show on the CBS Radio Network, The Mel Blanc Show, which ran from September 3, 1946 to June 24, 1947. For 50 years, Mel Blanc was the voice of many popular cartoon characters including Bugs Bunny, Daffy Duck, Porky Er, Galland, he came up with nothing of the sort. Blanc as Porky Pig pre-dated Zookie. By a decade at least. He did, however, derive a few of his - 25 min - Uploaded by OTR Old Time RadioAlthough Mel Blanc did countless character impersonations on other radio programs, as well The Definitive The Mel Blanc Show Radio Program Log with biographies of Mel Blanc and Mary Jane Croft. - 24 min - Uploaded by OTR Old Time RadioAlthough Mel Blanc did countless character impersonations on other radio programs, as well The problem with the Mel Blanc show is, once the show is established, every episode is<div data-bbox=)

exactly the same with the opening narration illustrating - 26 min - Uploaded by A Room With A ViewMel Blancs success on The Jack Benny Program led to his own radio show on the CBS Radio - 25 min - Uploaded by OTR Old Time RadioAlthough Mel Blanc did countless character impersonations on other radio programs, as well - 24 min - Uploaded by OTR Old Time RadioAlthough Mel Blanc did countless character impersonations on other radio programs, as well