

Shut your eyes and imagine this. You are the only realtor in your entire marketplace and your phone is ringing day and night. Getting new listings is as easy as fishing in a trout hatchery, finding buyers is like finding Cub fans at a Cub's game. As a realtor you could be compared to what Google is to search engines—practically the only game in town! Now open your eyes from imagining. The truth is that being a realtor is competitive—in fact it's furiously competitive. There are scores of other realtors vying for the same turf you are and some of them are very very good at what they do. You have seen the statistics. 80% of Realtors don't make it past their first year. And, even for seasoned veterans, years of experience doesn't ensure them that their listing and buyer plates will always be full. Then there are the real estate markets themselves; up markets, down markets, sideways markets, and markets which no one can quite figure out. Another statistic is that 10% of realtors are earning 90% of the commissions. So what are those top 10% Realtors doing so very right? It boils down to this: They have learned how to brand themselves to "Stand Out". Stand Out! Realtor is not just another marketing book. It answers the question of how to turn your realtor business into a client magnet—although like all good things in life, it does take both effort and time to accomplish these results. The book's 264 pages is a blueprint filled with a parade of ideas on how any realtor can excite clients and win their loyalty, attract a wave of new buyers and sellers, and make their presence felt on the internet. Stand Out! Realtor is an operational, marketing and let's call it a "commission making" guide. It combines the author's own extensive hands on experience, adjuncted with countless hours, call it a lifetime of research. With 264 pages packed with 1,000s of ideas, it's a certainty you'll find numerous gems within its pages which you'll be able to add to your own realtor success formula. The book is also an enjoyable read, full of humor and interesting anecdotes, so it's guaranteed you won't be rubbing your eyes.
